A LIFE CARE SERVICES® COMMUNITY

A Small and Intimate Senior Living Community

with a Big Heart

The atmosphere at Autumn Leaves is one of the most important elements for our residents and it's the exact thing that sets us apart from other senior living communities in the area. Because Autumn Leaves has a genuine, casual environment, our residents feel welcome and comfortable—it just feels like home. Here are a few reasons people choose Autumn Leaves:

- Our location offers unparalleled comfort. Many of our residents grew up in surrounding neighborhoods and raised families here. This sense of familiarity helps them to immediately feel at home and build connections with the other residents at Autumn Leaves.
- Enough space to maintain your sense of self. We want you to continue feeling independent and in control of your own life. That's why we provide ample space with balconies, patios and large common spaces to give you room to live how you like.
- Intimate facilities for cozy, familiar living. Autumn Leaves offers a much more intimate, comfortable environment than larger senior living facilities.
